City Inn, Budapesta, 4 stele

Situated in a quiet residential street in Budapest's 8th district, the City Inn is just a leisurely 10-15 minute walk to the popular tourist Vaci street and the Danube River. It is close to a tram stop linking passengers to all of the city's attractions. The hotel is just a 25 minute drive from the airport. The rooms are small and of a very high 4* standard. All en-suite rooms have good size beds, safe, mini-bar, air conditioner, satellite TV, a table and chair and are modern in style. The dining room is long and narrow and forms part of the bar. Buffet style breakfast is served here and the bar/cafe is open all day. Built in 2005, this modern brick building is 6 stories tall with a large glass entrance. A small stylish lobby with the reception desk on the left hand side as you enter. Currency exchange is also available at reception. An excellent 3* hotel close to the city's best attractions. The reception and bar are both open 24 hours and there is hotel parking available. As of the middle of May 2008 after extensive refurbishment and upgrade of all bedrooms and public spaces, the City Inn will become a 4* hotel.

Hilton, Budapest, 5 stele

Located on the Buda side of the city, the hotel is the only deluxe hotel situated on Castle Hill. It benefits from a unique location overlooking the Fishermans Bastion and opposite St. Mattias church with splendid views of the Danube river and Margaret island. It is in a quiet location in a semi-pedestrian cobbled street in one of the most famous and beautiful parts of the city. The nearest metro and train station is the Deli-Pu (south). All the rooms are large. Rooms are of an exceptional standard and as one would expect, all are fully equipped. All rooms have a small ante-chamber separated from the main bedroom by a wooden screen. Bathrooms are large and luxuriously finished in marble. There are a number of eating venues at the hotel, including the fine gourmet restaurant, the Dominican, with spectacular views over the Danube. The traditional Kalocsa featuring gypsy music, a roof-top cocktail bar and the Faust wine bar in the monasterys former wine cellar. The hotel has a modern exterior. A particular and unique feature is the 14th century monastery within its walls, which is visible from some of the rooms as well as from the lobby bar. The lobby is large and elegantly appointed with a wood panelled reception area and a number of comfortable seats. There is also a small souvenir shop. With its unique location next to Buda castle, the Hilton is an ideal place to stay for anyone wanting to be in Budapests most historical centre. AHJ 04.08
